As you may know, CTE is applying for inclusion in the Orthodox Union's Community Fair to be held on Sunday, April 26, 2015 in New York City. This Fair showcases communities throughout the country that would like to attract new families. Since we are committed to growing our community, we will be sending in our application this week. As part of this endeavor, we have created a new Facebook page as well as an Instagram page. An exceptional ad touting the strengths of Twin Rivers was written and a beautiful video which shows off our special community is almost complete.

We are especially appreciative of all the effort put forth to create and maintain the social media pages and our new video. A heartfelt thank you goes out to Devorah Blumberg, Rina Blumberg, Hadas Rosenthal, Mia Kenton, Judi Hoffman, Sam Braun, Nora Horn, and Leib Miller who worked diligently to make this happen.

... Leaders of Tomorrow

From the office of the Youth Director;

Dear all,

epic, inspirational and legendary are some of the words that we can use to describe this past Sha-BOSS! From fri night teen minyan, seudah and oneg to shabbos day meal, oneg, shalashudis and a rabbi miller havdala. It was a great shabbos. But it did not end there!!! Off to ice skating we went with over 35 participants! And then back to Twin Rivers for a BBQ melava malka!

As we always say,
This is Twin Rivers, the grass is greener on OUR side!

Devar Torah by Yirmy Ertel

In this weeks Parsha, Chayei Sarah, it says "And the life of Sarah was one hundred years and twenty years and seven years. Why did the pasuk not just say she live 127 years? The answer is, that when she was 100, she was as sinless as a 20 year old. (Meaning no sins at all) If we look into the Megillah, we see that Esther and Achashverosh ruled over 127 countries. Since Sarah lived all her years doing mitzvos, Esther who was her descendant, merited to rule over 127 countries. We learn from this that we should always do Mitzvos, because not only do they help us, but they can even help or children. Good Shabbos!!

P.S. - if you know of anyone who is not getting the full benefit of all the local programming please contact me 609-903-6225 or rabbichinn@gmail.com.

Baseball – Winter Siesta has begun early this year.

In order to keep the Shul a safe and welcoming place for all of our families to gather, we need everybody's cooperation and assistance. Please make sure that your children are supervised at all times.
